UNDO LIFE'S 'KNOTS' WITH A NEW LIVING NOVENA

NOTRE DAME, Ind.—Since the seventeenth century, Catholics facing seemingly insurmountable obstacles have resolutely turned to Our Lady, Undoer of Knots through a special novena—nine days of prayer for divine intervention.

Catholic blogger and journalist Marge Fenelon takes Pope Francis's favorite novena and revives it for contemporary Catholics in her new book Our Lady, Undoer of Knots: A Living Novena. Fenelon's take on the ancient tradition, also known as the Unfailing Novena, reflects on nine sacred sites associated with Pope Francis's pilgrimage to the Holy Land in 2014. Included in this nine-day journey are the famous biblical and historical sites of Bethlehem, the Mount of Olives, and the Temple Mount.

In exploring the interconnectedness of these locations, Fenelon creates a unique guided meditation that will help readers untangle their own personal "knots" and find inner peace.
