

Name _____

Jesus Christ: God's Revelation to the World
Chapter 10 Who Do You Say That I Am?

Date _____

Directions: Read through the chapter and fill in the missing information. All the questions run sequential to the chapter. If a true/false statement is false, correct it.

Introduction: Who Is Jesus to You? (Pages 331–333)

1. What important question did Jesus ask his followers on the road to Philippi?
2. How did St. Peter answer the question?
3. What do some people today believe about Jesus, short of the fact that he really is the Son of the living God?
4. What question must each person decide about Jesus Christ?

Section 1: The Gospel Portrait of Jesus (Pages 334–337)

5. True or False? In reading the Gospels, one will notice that Jesus enjoyed a great variety of friends.
6. True or False? Although Jesus' friends included many marginal and undesirable people, he did not have any friends among the Jewish leaders.
7. Fill-in-the-Blanks: Jesus was a _____ for everyone: he _____ with tax collectors, forgave _____ for denying him, and spoke to the _____ woman at the well, someone who "lived in sin." He even _____ the people who put him to death. But he also made _____ of his friends and some people did not want a _____ with Jesus badly enough to _____ their ways of life or views.
8. True or False? Because he was God, Jesus did not share true human emotions with his friends.
9. What command did Jesus give to us?
10. Fill-in-the-Blanks Jesus had _____ convictions which he would not _____ and was not afraid of conflict. He stood up to teachers who laid heavy _____ burdens on others while not practicing the _____ of the religion and he dramatically cleared the Temple precinct of _____ because they were misusing the _____ place.
11. True or False? Jesus was sensitive to others, showing tenderness and love.
12. True or False? The Gospels provide no description of what Jesus looked like and Jews of Jesus' day forbade personal portraits to prevent apostasy.

13. True or False? A common depiction of the crucified Jesus does not become commonplace for about the first thousand years of Christianity.
14. Explain why it is important to think critically about images of Jesus.
15. Fill-in-the-Blanks Jesus _____ what he preached. His primary lesson and example was to love others. He taught his disciples to be _____ and forgiving. He modeled _____ when he washed their feet at the Last Supper. He taught them to _____ others, even enemies, something he did to those who _____ him. Further, he told them not to do _____ to attract attention.
16. According to Jesus, what is the greatest example of love of others?

Section 2: The Early Church Preaches about Jesus (Pages 339–345)

17. What New Testament books tell us about the early days of the Church and the spread of the Gospel in the Roman Empire?
18. True or False? Although the Church began on Easter Sunday, God had the Church in mind for all eternity.
19. What is the kerygma?
20. How do we know that Peter's Pentecost sermon had an electrifying effect on those who heard him?
21. Fill-in-the-Blanks Paul's conversion to Christ was an important _____ in history. Prior to this he was _____ to Jews who believed in Jesus and _____ opposed them and their preaching that Jesus was the _____. Paul was a strict _____ whose upbringing in Tarsus exposed him to _____ religions, philosophies, and customs—experiences that proved _____ after his conversion.
22. True or False? Ananias had to assure the disciples that Paul had truly turned away from persecuting Christians.
23. True or False? Though thirteen of the letters in the New Testament are attributed to Paul, some may have been written by his closest disciples.
24. List seven important teachings of St. Paul about Jesus.
25. Fill-in-the-Blanks The Letter to the _____ is a written _____ which reveals that Jesus Christ is the supreme _____ and model of faith. As a _____, he both offers the sacrifice and he himself is the _____. He willingly offered this for the _____ of all which instituted a New Covenant prophesied by _____.

26. True or False? The Letter to the Hebrews offers the example of Jesus Christ in an effort to encourage a community of dispirited Christians to persevere in their faith.
27. Why are seven of the New Testament epistles called “Catholic Epistles?”

Directions: Write the name of the correct epistle described below.

28. Condemns immoral practices by converts
29. Emphasizes that disciples of Jesus must put their faith into action
30. Address heretical teachings that had crept into the Church
31. Instructs Christians to imitate Christ’s patient suffering and endure trials for Christ
32. Instructs Christians to be ready for the Parousia even though the time is unclear
33. States that Christians should have true belief in Jesus as both the Son of God and the Messiah, and avoid heretical views to the contrary
34. Fill-in-the-Blanks The final book of the Bible is the Book of _____ also known as the Apocalypse. It is filled with elaborate _____ and consequently is one of the most _____ books in the Bible to understand. Its message is that Jesus has brought _____ over death and he will _____ in other situations of sin and _____.
35. Fill-in-the-Blanks There are many _____ used for Jesus in the Revelation of John. Jesus is the perfect _____ who liberates us from sin. He is _____ as revealed by the Greek letters of Alpha and Omega. The titles _____ emphasizes that Jesus is the _____, and, finally, King of Kings and _____ affirm that he is supreme.

Section 3: Make a Commitment to Really Know Jesus (Pages 347–348)

36. Fill-in-the-Blank It is important to know about Jesus, the Savior of the world, but it is more important _____.
37. List the four steps to becoming Jesus’ friend.