

Catholic Social Teaching Chapter 10 Small

Across

3. Abbreviation for chlorofluorocarbons

5. These nations are the biggest contributing factor contributing to environmental destruction through over-consumption

7. The ___ effect is a phenomenon whereby the earth's atmosphere traps solar radiation

9. Humans are the summit of God's creation because God made us in his ___

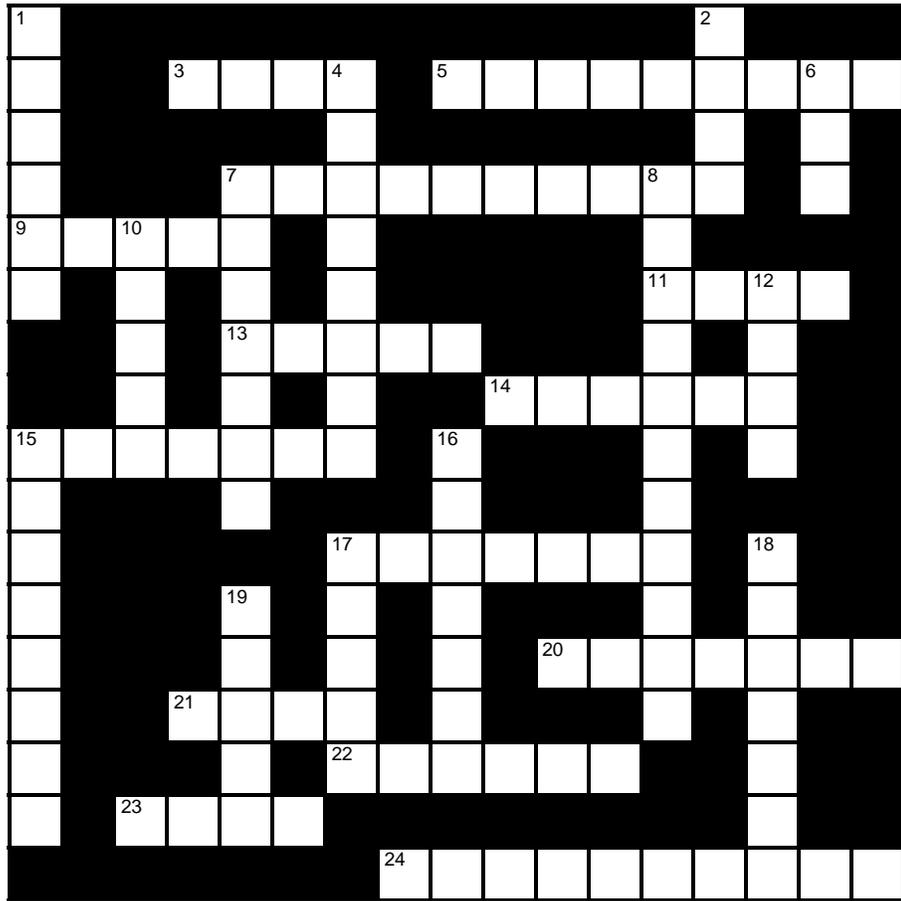

11. Dominion over creation require cultivation and ___

13. First Colossians says that Jesus reconciled all things in heaven and ___ to the Father

14. The major offenders against the natural world

15. Humans are the only ___ that has the power to cause mass extinction

17. More than one ___ people lack access to clean water in developing countries

20. Embraced all of nature as a part of his love for God's family

21. Pope John Paul II tells how rural poverty has led to the exhaustion of this

22. Something we can do to preserve creation is to conserve this

23. The Church is very concerned about how what we do to the environment affects these people

24. A dense tropical forest with an annual rainfall of at least 100 inches

Down

1. Meetings sponsored by the United Nations in which agreements are made to clean up the environment

2. Jesus warned that ___ will be demanded of the person entrusted with ___ (same word in both blanks)

4. Humans are ___ of the earth

6. Environmental Protection Agency abbreviation

7. Creation is good is a recurring refrain in this biblical book

8. Catholics believe we live in a ___ universe in which tangible signs like the wonders of creation can reveal God's presence

10. Sin has led humans to ___ the gift of creation

12. The prophets instructed the Israelites to ___ the land every seven years

15. To ___ ones lifestyle is to consume less, buying things because we need as opposed to want

16. We all live in a global ____, something that emphasizes our interdependence

17. The ____ reveals that it is human sinfulness that has alienated us from God

18. Something we can do to preserve the environment

19. A treaty that the U.S. refused to sign which sought to curb carbon dioxide emissions